Compliments of the Class of 1960

Foreword

Here is the record—here is the book
And our small claim to glory.
With a cheery wave and a friendly hello,
We invite you to read our story.

We've had our fling at Hingham High;
This has been our happiest year.
So after we've gone, you can read this book,
And remember that we were here.

We have put in these pages forever
The friends that we have met.
And in reading this book we'll remember
The years we'll never forget.

Now our best years are over;
Before us the future towers.
But here we can tell our story;
For now—the stage is ours.

FOREWORD

Hingham High School
Hingham, Massachusetts

*Our Principal
Arnold W. Bartlett*

A message from our Principal:

We need one another when we are in trouble and crave help, or when we are in the deep waters of temptation and one strong hand might pull us out.

We need one another when we would accomplish some great purpose and cannot do this alone.

We need one another in our defeats, when with encouragements we might strive again, and in the hour of triumph when we would have all the world partakers in our joy.

All our lives we are in need; and others are in need of us.

We live the most when we bring to one another our understanding, our sympathy, and our applause.

*Our Superintendent
I. Douglass Reade*

To the Class of 1960:

May I express my sincere congratulations to you for the successful completion of your secondary school training.

In our democratic society, we may avail ourselves of many years of education beyond the twelve years of public education. It need not be a formal type of education. Every experience we meet in daily life presents an opportunity to learn.

As you think of the future, think of the words of Charles F. Kettering:

"The past is gone and static. Nothing we can do can change it. The future is before us and dynamic. Everything we do will affect it. Every day brings with it new frontiers, in our homes and in our business, if we will only recognize them. We are just at the beginning of progress in every field of human endeavor."

I. D. READE

*Our Assistant Superintendent
John T. Samuelson*

My little baby brother!

Forward, side, together.

I don't want to set the world on fire.

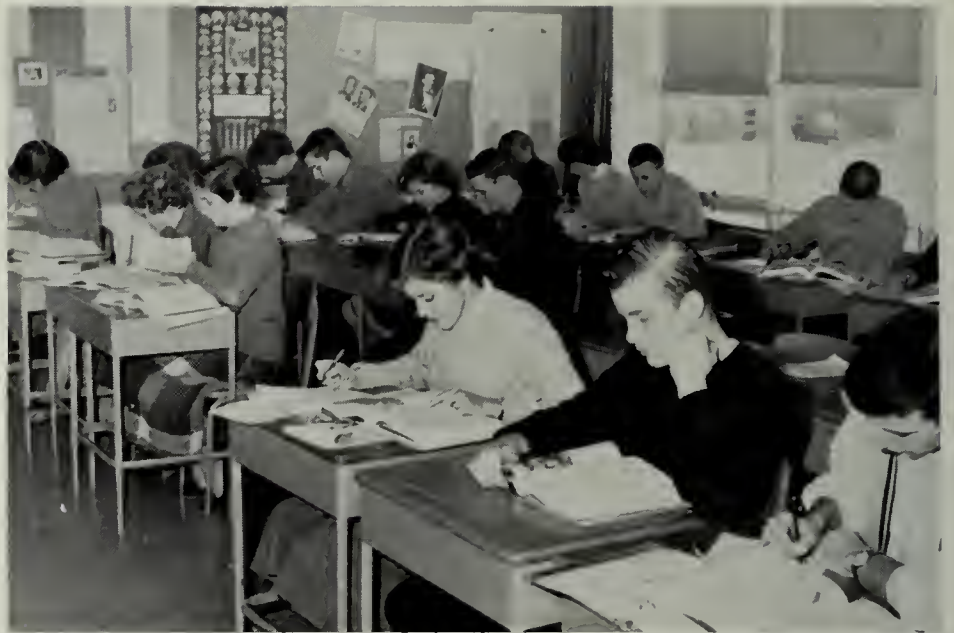

Hey, there are 20,000 tiny filters!

This must be posed!

It can't be that bad.

Well, I guess it is that bad.

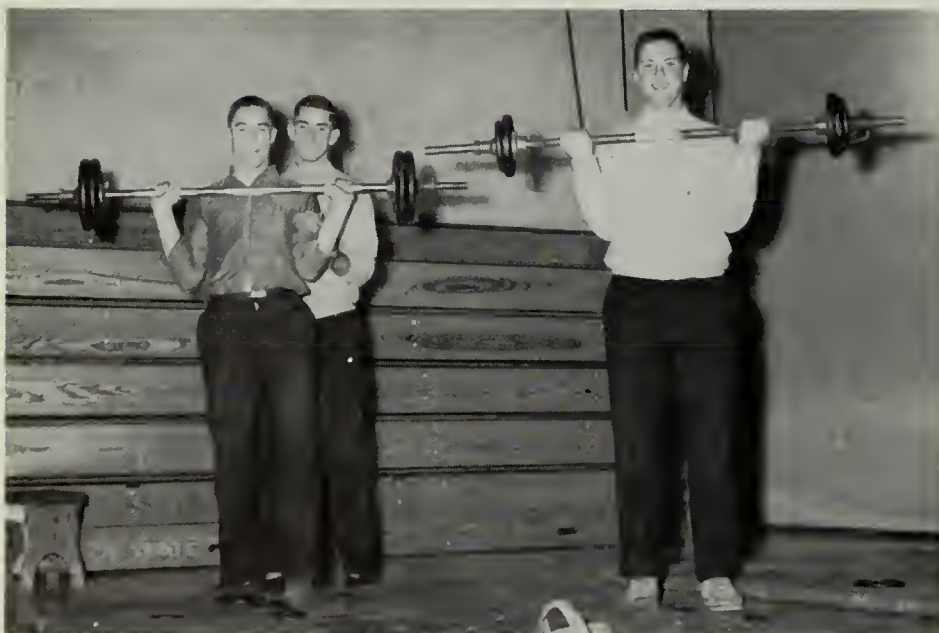

"Would you believe it . . . I have a cold!"

Who wears short shorts? We wear short shorts.

Well, who needs directions anyway!

"I was a 97 lb. weakling . . ."

H'awright, people.

Typical Day

And a cheery good morning to you, too.

Keep your eyes on the copy and your hands on the keys.

"The assembly chairman for this morning is . . ."

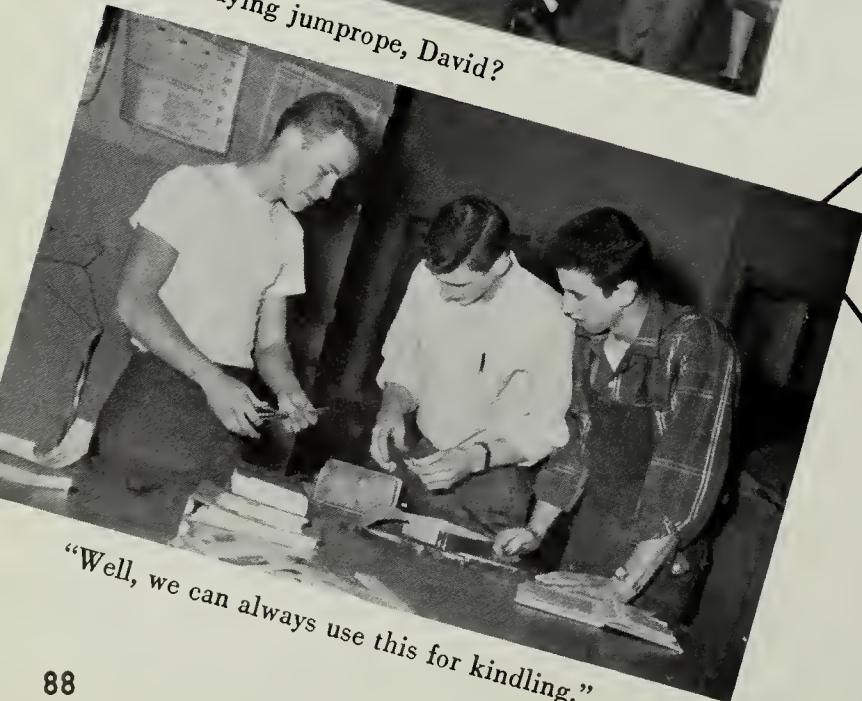

Blowing wild.

Playing jumprope, David?

Who wants to make this dish?

"Well, we can always use this for kindling."

Concentration camp.

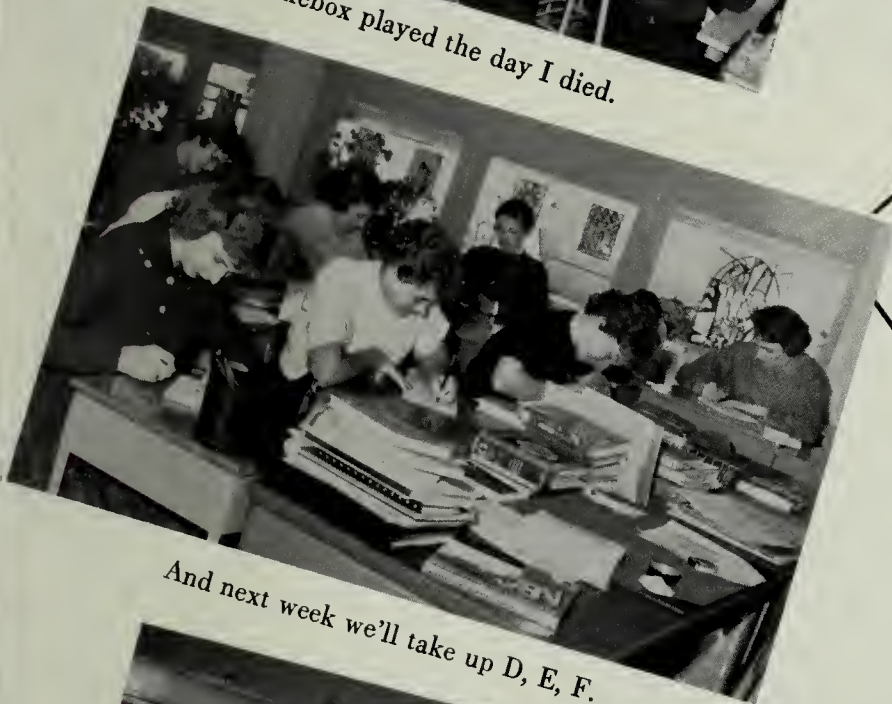

at Hingham High

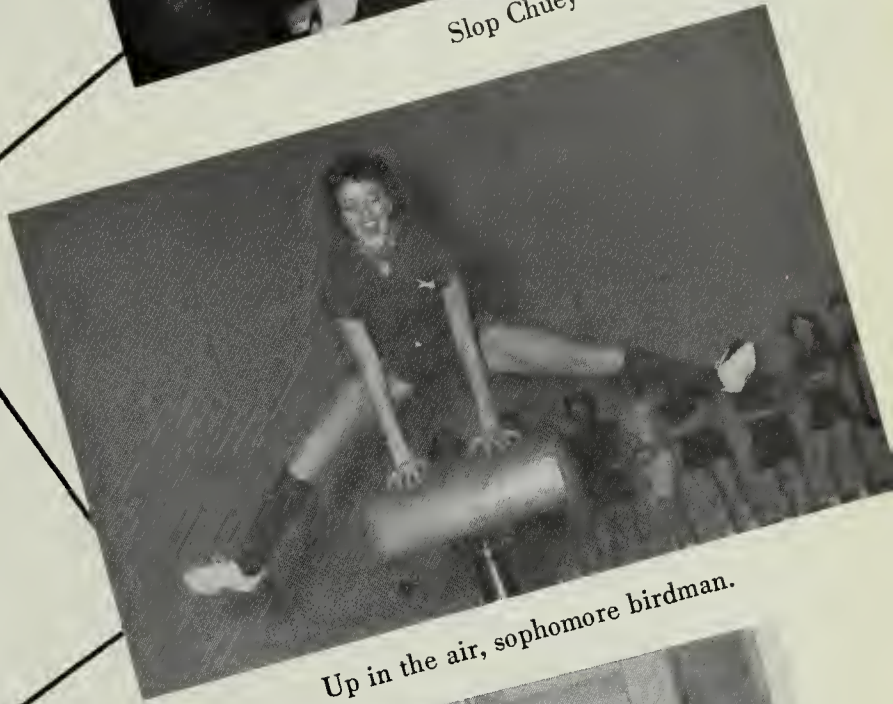

I dreamed the jukebox played the day I died.

Slop Chuey Day.

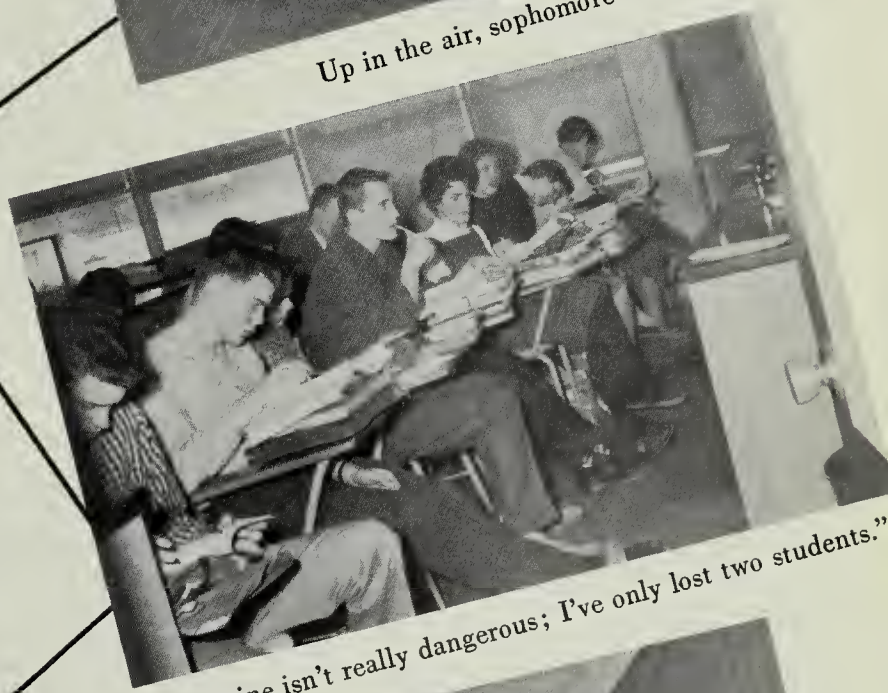

And next week we'll take up D, E, F.

Up in the air, sophomore birdman.

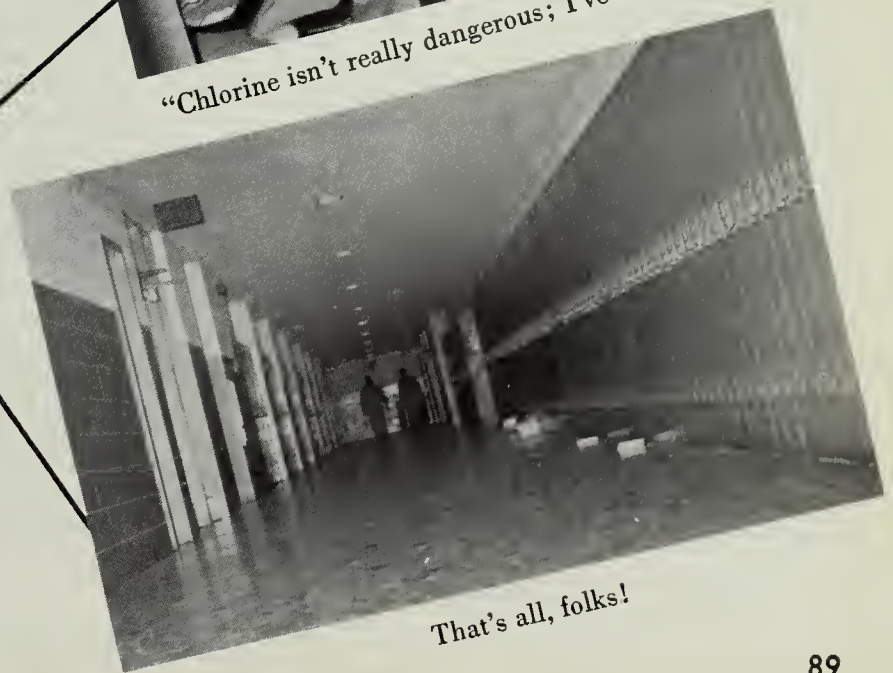

Rush order for an elephant trap.

"Chlorine isn't really dangerous; I've only lost two students."

"Detention will be held in Room 122."

That's all, folks!

You think of a caption for this one!

While you're thinking, do this one too.

Fall

... and after we herded them into the corral ...

What's the matter, sore feet?

The pause that refreshes.

The West was never like this!

Giddyap, horsie!

Dances

Stick 'em up, partner.

Which one used the Lady Schick?

Any Mozart?

Hingham's Rockettes.

"Okay, now, let's hear it!"

Satisfied? Satisfied!

"... and next year we'll be able to afford shoes."

We've got the team that's on the beam . . .

We have men of muscles, they have men of wood.

What's cooking . . . mother?

Twirl girls.

36—24—36—hike!

Beauty and the Beat.

"Will you sign for this package, White-side?" "... Where?"

Something's gotta give.

Say "ah."

"Hello—room service?"

Came to Dinner

The lineup.

I was at a basketball game and this elephant . . .

Now gently fold in the paint.

Late

Don't stand there looking, put it away!

Arrival

"Where's the French translation?"

Florence in

FLORENCE MAITRE-DEVALLO
79 Boulevard Notre Dame
Marseilles, France

Hingham

"What's a 'drag'?"

"Going my way?"

Only one thing missing—snow!

"Ne parlez-vous francais?"

Christmas Program

"... and he shook when he laughed, like a bowl full of jelly."

'Twas the Night Before Christmas.'

"And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the fields..."

"And she brought forth her firstborn son..."

"When up on the roof there arose such a clatter..."

"Gloria in Excelsis Deo."

Snowball

Talking over the dance.

Santa's helpers.

Soft lights and sweet music.

Say it with music.

Sleighbells ring.

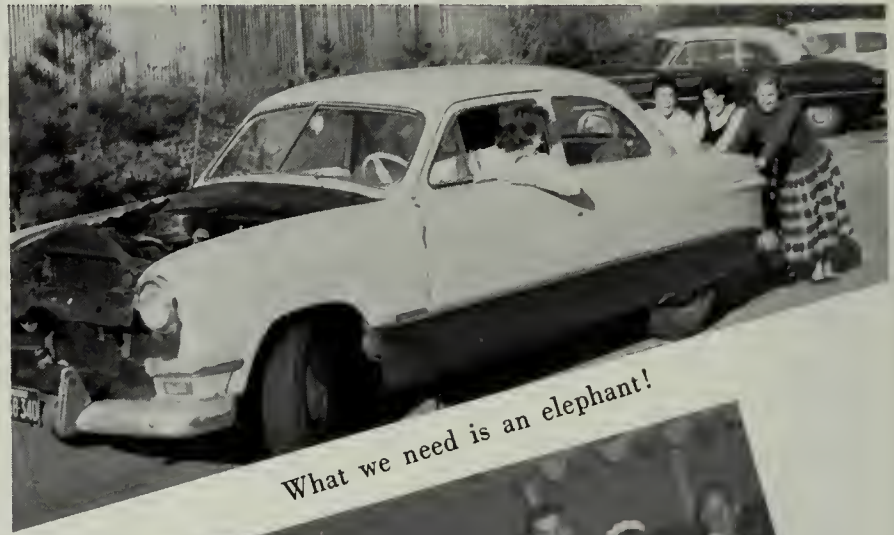

Memories are made of this.

Pictures We Hated to Leave Out

More bounce to the ounce.

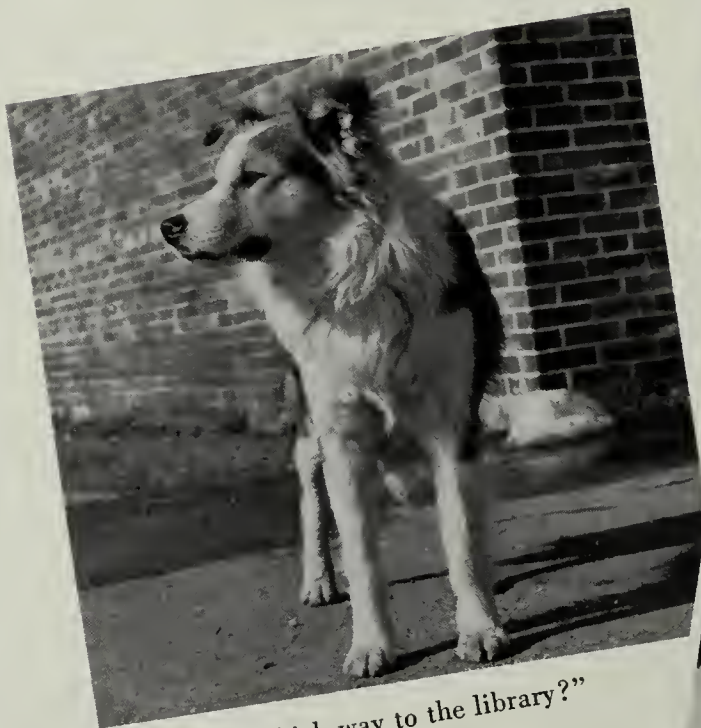

What we need is an elephant!

The best Junior Prom yet!

Bottoms up!

"Which way to the library?"

Queen Jane Mahoney and King Mike Shaughnessy: The Irish reign supreme.

"Hi, Daddy-o!"

To the Class of '61

So ends the record—so ends the book
And our small claim to glory.
With a wave of the hand and a backward look,
We leave you the rest of the story.

Let no opportunity pass you by—
Neither classes nor teachers daunt you;
But carry the torch of tradition high,
Or we'll come back and haunt you.

We hope you'll never let us down
Or let school spirit die.
Always be proud of your school and your town
And your years at Hingham High.

For us good-by to the good old days—
The cheers, the fun, the chores.
YOU ring the curtain, YOU call the plays;
Good luck—the stage is yours.
